Supervised Night Study

Dear Parents,

Night Study will recommence on Monday, 17 January 2022. It is available for 5th and 6th year every Monday, Tuesday and Thursday. Gonzaga College SJ offers this quiet environment for self-motivated students, who are responsible enough to avail of this facility. Due to COVID-19, we will be reviewing Night Study on an ongoing basis, so please do keep in mind that the information outlined below may change.

Night Study Format

- There are two different Night Study sittings
  - o Option 1: 3.45-5.45pm
  - o Option 2: 6-8pm
- The library will be closed for cleaning both before and after these two sittings.
- There will be one meal service in the Dining Hall, 5.15-5.45pm.
  - o Only students attending the later sitting can avail of the meal.
  - o Students either pre-order for the term or purchase a meal on the day (before 11am)
  - o The meal costs €4.50.

Night Study Policy

- Students are expected to present on time and to remain seated for the duration.
- Silence is to be maintained throughout the period of study.
- Students must wear masks.
- Use of mobile phone is permitted ONLY for the first 30 minutes, and ONLY for schoolrelated work, such as checking school email, past papers or TEAMS.
- Food and beverages (other than a water) are not permitted.
- Students must promptly leave the building at the end.
- Any absence requires a note from a parent, preferably in advance.
- A student whose behaviour is not consistent with Night Study Policy will be sent home, and he will have to apply for readmission to Night Study.

It will be essential for students attending Night Study to adhere to the same hygiene and social distancing practices that exist during the school day. Forms must be fully completed and submitted prior to first attendance. Any student who does not consistently behave in accordance with this policy may be denied the facility of Night Study, at the Headmaster's discretion.
